

Lord God,

You are my God, and earnestly I seek You. My soul thirsts for You in a dry and weary land where there is no water (Psalms 63:1). I come thirsty, longing for the living water that only Your Spirit can give (John 7:37–39).

Father, You promised that if I ask, You will give the Holy Spirit to those who ask You (Luke 11:13). So today, I ask: pour out Your Spirit upon me like rain on the thirsty land (Isaiah 44:3). Refresh me, renew me, and fill me with Your presence.

Holy Spirit, come with power. Just as You clothed the disciples with boldness (Acts 1:8; Acts 4:31), clothe me now. Fan into flame the gift You have given me (2 Timothy 1:6–7). Break my fear, stir my courage, and make me a faithful witness of Jesus.

Spirit of Truth, I ask You to search my heart. Jesus said You would convict the world concerning sin, righteousness, and judgment (John 16:8). Shine Your light into my hidden places, expose what is false, and lead me into repentance. Do not let me grieve or quench You, but sanctify me through and through.

Lord Jesus, You promised that the Spirit of truth would guide me into all truth and glorify You (John 16:13–14). So I pray: open my mind to Your Word, shape my desires to Your will, and guard me from the lies of the enemy. Make me a lover of truth who walks in holiness and freedom.

Holy Spirit, I need Your discernment. You have said that “the Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God” (1 Corinthians 2:10). Teach me to distinguish truth from error, light from darkness, wisdom from folly. “The person without the Spirit does not accept the things that come from the Spirit of God... but the person with the Spirit makes judgments about all things” (1 Corinthians 2:14–15). Give me spiritual understanding so I may know the mind of Christ (1 Corinthians 2:16), test every spirit (1 John 4:1), and hold fast to what is good (1 Thessalonians 5:21).

And Holy Spirit, I invite Your leadership over every step of my life. “Those who are led by the Spirit of God are the children of God” (Romans 8:14). Lead me in paths of righteousness for Your name’s sake (Psalms 23:3). Direct my steps, order my days, and show me the way I should go. “Teach me to do Your will, for You are my God; let Your good Spirit lead me on level ground” (Psalms 143:10). I surrender my decisions, my plans, and my future into Your hands.

Spirit of God, I confess that You are Lord, not me. Your Word says, “Do not get drunk on wine...but be filled with the Spirit” (Ephesians 5:18). I long to be controlled, governed, and guided by You—not to use You for my purposes, but to be used by You for Yours. I desire to “keep in step with the Spirit” (Galatians 5:25), to “set my mind on what the Spirit desires” (Romans 8:5), and to surrender to Your meaning and power in my life.

And I acknowledge the mystery: “The wind blows wherever it pleases. You hear its sound, but you cannot tell where it comes from or where it is going. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit” (John 3:8). Spirit, You move freely, sovereignly, beyond my control. All I can do is watch, listen, pay attention, and join the work You are already doing. Teach me to yield, to discern, and to follow wherever You lead.

Where You are, Spirit of God, there is freedom (2 Corinthians 3:17). Transform me into the image of Christ with ever-increasing glory (2 Corinthians 3:18). Fill me to the measure of all the fullness of God (Ephesians 3:19).

Renew me day by day (Titus 3:5–6). Let rivers of living water flow from within me, bringing life to a weary world (John 7:38). And may my life overflow with joy, peace, and hope by the power of the Holy Spirit (Romans 15:13).

I surrender afresh to You, Lord. Come, Holy Spirit. Convict me, cleanse me, lead me, teach me, fill me, empower me, transform me, and take control—for the glory of Jesus Christ.

Amen.
